

Managing The Difficult Primary Hip

Ray Randle

John Flynn Private Hospital, Tugun, Queensland, Australia

Three examples of commonly encountered different difficult primary hip replacements from my practice have been selected to illustrate potential problems and management. These are;

1. Protrusio in THR
2. Acetabular dysplasia
3. Conversion of arthrodesis/ankylosis to THR